GETTING READY FOR YOUR PILGRIMAGE

PREPARATION

You are on pilgrimage for a short time. It is a chance to surrender to the mystery of the journey, without the distractions of our daily routines. You have a unique chance to rest in the hands of your leaders, in the hospitality of the wonderful people of Israel-Palestine, and in the guiding love of God. Traveling lightly, including shedding worries and preconceptions, will open your heart to the adventure and holy journey you will be sharing together. One of the most important differences between a vacation and a pilgrimage is advanced preparation. In order to bond the pilgrimage group and thoroughly prepare us for this once in a lifetime experience, all participants will be expected to attend four preparatory group meetings. These meetings will last approximately two hours, and will be scheduled between July and October of 2020 at times and locations most agreeable to those who have registered for the trip.

TRAVEL DOCUMENTS

It is mandatory that you have a passport valid until at least May 31, 2021. Visas to Israel are not required for persons holding United States passports and traveling to Israel directly from the USA.

If you are planning to travel from Israel to Jordan you must obtain a Visa before you arrive in Israel. If you are coming from Jordan to Israel you can get a Visa in the Jordanian airport. These arrangements are the responsibility of the individual traveler.

TRANSPORTATION FROM TEL AVIV (BEN GURION) AIRPORT TO JERUSALEM:

Fr. Rob Courtney will lead those flying with the group. Our guide, Iyad Qumri, will meet the group at Ben Gurion Airport. A bus will transport the group to St. George's.

MEALS

All meals are included. Breakfast is to be at the St. George's Guest House or at the Sisters of Nazareth Guest House. Lunches are in restaurants along the way. Dinners are at St. George's Guest House and at Sisters of Nazareth. There are several nights when you can plan to enjoy the local restaurants on your own. When you do this, the Guest House must be notified the day before. The cost of the missed meal cannot be reimbursed. If you have dietary restrictions, please discuss these with Fr. Courtney before completing your registration form.

TRANSPORTATION DURING THE PILGRIMAGE

We will travel on a modern, comfortable, deluxe tour bus. There is no bathroom on board, but rest stops are always available.

WALKING

Participants should be able to walk comfortably for up to 60 minutes at a time. Bear in mind that the terrain is often rough, and uneven. There are a number of moderate up-hill walks. In some locations there are places to sit and rest while waiting for the group.

FREE TIME

There will be some planned “free time” within our itinerary, particularly in the evenings. Your guide will suggest a variety of activities for you to choose from including particular shopping areas and additional places of interest. Or, you may choose just to relax and enjoy the grounds of St. George’s Cathedral.

WEATHER

Daytime temperatures will be in the 60°s in most of the country (hotter, though, at the Dead Sea). Jerusalem will be in the mid 50°s in the evening, with an early sunset (4:30 PM or so). There is very moderate chance of rain in the winter months.

Tel: 972-4-6554304

Fax: 972-4-6460741

CLOTHING

For women:

Dress conservatively for the Holy Sites. Skirts, slacks or capris (that cover the knees) are good. No tank tops, shorts or sleeveless blouses. Short-sleeves are fine. Bermuda shorts are fine for the walking tour in the Galilee. You will want to be able to dress up slightly for church on Sunday and for a couple of special nights. You may also want a sweater or light jacket for potentially cool evenings.

For men:

Long pants, jeans or khakis, are necessary most days. Bermuda shorts are fine for the walking tour in the Galilee. You might want some long-sleeved shirts for church and a few special nights.

Everyone will need a hat and sun glasses. Sneakers and/or walking shoes that can handle cobblestones are absolutely necessary.

LAUNDRY

Many pilgrims hand wash a few items in their bathrooms; they will dry overnight. There is also a laundry service available at St. George's for an extra charge.

PHOTOGRAPHY AND CAMERAS

Most sacred sites will indicate whether photography is permitted. Bring extra memory cards and batteries from your home country as these items are very expensive in Israel and Palestine.

BOOKS

You will not want to bring many books. However, pack a journal, perhaps a guide book to read at night, a Bible or prayer book if it is small. Excellent books are for sale at St. George's College and the nearby Educational Bookshop, as well as in other shops we will visit.

ELECTRIC APPLIANCES

The electrical current in Israel is 220AC. Electrical plugs are shaped differently in Israel. Most U.S. phone and camera chargers only need a simple plug adaptor (see Internet or local travel store). You will need a transformer in addition to an adapter if you are bringing a hair drier.

WAKE-UP CALLS

Wake-up calls are possible but a small travel alarm is useful.

JEWELRY

A watch is helpful but a lot of jewelry is unnecessary. Many people enjoy finding a silver or gold cross or some special earrings while on the pilgrimage.

PURCHASING PERSONAL ITEMS

There is a pharmacy five minutes' walk from St. George's for those items you may have forgotten.

INTERNET

There is wireless internet at St. George's Guest House. There is also wireless at the Sisters of Nazareth, but it is very limited.

CURRENCY

It is wise to bring at least 20 $1.00 bills. It is possible to get NIS (New Israeli Shekels) in the USA in advance of your departure. You can also change dollars into shekels at the airport and there is a money changer as well as an ATM within 10 minutes of the Hotel. Remember you will receive shekels not dollars from the ATM. Many merchants will accept credit cards (although they often add a foreign transaction fees). The majority of places we will visit do take dollars.

WATER

Bottled water is available for $1.00 per bottle on the tour bus. Tap water is safe to drink. It is crucial that you stay hydrated in the dry climate.
