

2026 Addictions Recovery Ministry Mixed Retreat August 7-9, 2026

Solomon Episcopal Conference Center
Loranger, LA

For people who are in or who want to be in recovery.

To register, go to:
[https://seccla.org/events2/
edolacoedrecovery2026/](https://seccla.org/events2/edolacoedrecovery2026/) and click on “Registration Page”

This year's theme: The Spirituality of the Twelve Steps

Activities include: meals, workshops with our retreat leader, a taize/healing service, 12 Step Eucharist, and time for rest, games, crafts, singing, meditation, spiritual direction, Healing Hands, fellowship, and 12 step meetings.

Retreat Leader - Fr. Jeff Paul

Fr. Jeff has over forty years of service to the Episcopal Church in Southern California and has led numerous AA/NA/Al-Anon mixed men and women retreats. Fr. Jeff believes that recovery is the cornerstone of his vocation as a priest, as a married man, a dad, and a grandfather.

Additional Information

Rates are:
$ 350/single $275/double* Two nights & five chef-prepared buffet meals

Activities begin at 6 PM Friday and conclude 11 AM Sunday. Check-in is at 3 PM Friday, but you can arrive as early as 1 PM

Financial aid may be available, email kmartinbr@gmail.com for more information*

*The Solomon Episcopal Conference Center
(<https://seccla.org>) is located in Loranger, LA, on 270 acres of sprawling woodlands about an hour's drive from New Orleans or Baton Rouge.*

The Addictions Recovery Ministry is a specialized ministry of the Episcopal Diocese of Louisiana to welcome recovering people into the Episcopal community and to help recovering Episcopalians find a home within the organized Church. For more information, visit our webpage at <https://www.edola.org/arm/>